Public Comments: None

New Business

1. Historic Impact Study from J. J. Kane was requested. G. Brown attended the April, 2018 Planning Commission meeting to express potential negative impact on Fricks Locks Village and the Trail Head. J.J. Kane has received zoning approval for land use. Many hurdles remain to be resolved.
2. Fricks Locks Stakeholders meeting, Monday, April 30, 2018 at Fricks Locks Village: Tim Fenchell said Matt Robeson will email a list of noted village damages to all members.
3. Discussion to consider mailing a letter to all Class I and II historic homeowners in the township as a volunteer drive. Need clarification.

Old Business: None

Planning Commission Liaison Report – L. Tietjen

1. The Planning Commission reviewed the Cell Phone Tower plans and the J. J. Kane Development plans. They also reviewed the Ebelhare Rd. and Christman Court properties for lot line adjustments.
2. Rehabilitation of Chester County Bridge #207: Pa. Historic Museum Commission has reviewed the plans and found no adverse impact. The Planning Commission agrees with this. Mr. Russell Stevenson, Architectural Historian for A. D. Marble, made a recommendation to Steven M. Frommick, Chester County Facilities and Parks. The Historic Commission supports his recommendation that the proposed project will have no adverse effect on Chester County Bridge #207.

Committees

1. Oral History Committee: K. McDermott (Chairperson). No new activity
2. Archives Committee: Position open
3. Fricks Locks Volunteer Committee: G. Brown, P. Morton, S. Fitzgerald (Co-Chairpersons). Need to set meeting date to prepare for Town Tour.

Other Business: None
