

PUBLIC NOTICE

The East Coventry Police Department maintains a repository for Criminal History Record information at 855 Ellis Woods Road, Pottstown, PA 19465.

The purpose of this repository is to store and disseminate Criminal History Record Information obtained through the Criminal Justice / Law Enforcement mission of the Police Department.

Criminal History Record Information will be stored in and disseminated from this repository pursuant to 18 P.S., Chapter 91.

Individuals have a right of access and review of this repository to inspect, challenge, and appeal the accuracy of their Criminal History Records that may be stored in the repository. Individuals wishing to review their Criminal History Records that may be stored in this repository must request the review not less than three (3) business days prior to the date of the review and must show proof of identification. If the individual's Criminal History Records are not stored in this repository, the individual will be referred to the Pennsylvania State Police Central Repository. Criminal History Record Information will be accessed and reviewed by individuals pursuant to 18 P.S., Chapters 9151, 9152 and 9153.

A copy of 18 P.S., Chapter 91, the Criminal History Records Information Act is available in the Township Office.